The towns voting list is presently being put on computer. It is important that this initial list be accurate. We need your help by reporting any additions, deletions, or address changes to the Town Office this week.

The revaluation of property in Bethel has been completed and notices will be sent out during the next week notifying each property owner of the 100% market value of their property. Hearings will be held at the Town Offices by the Sewall Co. to discuss the new values with anyone wishing to do so. The hearings will be held on Tuesday-Thursday, June 1-3 between the hours of 1 p. m. and 7 p. m. All property owners who have questions or who are not in agreement with the new value should call the Town office 824-2669, and make an appointment to talk with the representatives of the Sewall Co. on or before June 2.

The Radio Study Committee met Tuesday night, May 18, at the Fire Station to continue evaluation of the proposals submitted by Motorola and General Electric for furnishing radio equipment to the town. The committee will meet again tonight (Thursday) at 8:30 at the Fire Station to discuss portable radios with the representative from Motorola.

The Board of Selectmen will meet at 8:30 p. m. instead of 7 p. m. on Monday, May 24, in order that they can attend the S. A. D. 44 Budget Meeting at 7:30 p. m. The Planning Board will meet Wednesday night, May 26 at 7:30 in the Town Office.

The board of directors of S. A. D. 44 will hold a regular meeting at the Telstar Library on Tuesday evening, May 25, at 7:30. Under normal scheduling the meeting would have been held May 17, but was postponed to a date following the annual budget meeting.

The board will take any action that may be necessary following the results of the District Meeting. Also action concerning the issuance of assessments to the District's member towns will be on the agenda; as well as matters requiring board action on review of insurance values.

The board's decision will be necessary in matters of custodian bus driver vacancy and request for transfer by a custodian within the district.

ANNUAL M. S. A. D. #44 BUDGET MEETING AT TELSTAR NEXT MONDAY EVENING

The annual District Budget Meeting of S. A. D. 44 will be held at the Telstar Auditorium next Monday evening, May 24, at 7:30.

The district voters will be asked to take action on a warrant that would implement a budget permitting an expenditure of $2,146,410.50 to operate the public schools of S. A. D. #44 and the district's share of the expense of the Northern Oxford Vocational Area (NOVA), during fiscal year 1977 (July 1, 1976 to June 30, 1977). In addition, the voters will make a decision on an amount of $9,000 to support a S. A. D. #44 Adult Education Program, and $541 for the NOVA Adult Education Budget.

To fund the budget as approved by the S. A. D. #44 board of directors on May 3, it will be necessary for the district's member towns to provide $929,891.24 from local tax sources. Of this amount, $558,350 is the uniform tax as assessed by the State directly for the support of education.

On Page Seven may be found the District Meeting Warrant as well as comparative data regarding the impact of the proposed fiscal year 1977 budget on member municipalities; the amount of each town's liability to the district in calendar year 1976; and a comparison of the 1975 and 1976 calendar years. These figures are effective only if the warrant is approved as presented by the board of directors.

All voters within the district who are eligible to participate in the municipal affairs of member towns are eligible to vote at the District Meeting on May 24 at Telstar.

GREENWOOD FIRE DEPT. AUX. HOLDING MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The Greenwood Fire Department Auxiliary is holding a community-wide membership drive. This year-old organization is seeking support from all area people.

According to its bylaws the auxiliary was formed to aid and to assist the firemen. Any one interested in doing this is welcome to join. There have been fund-raising projects for the purpose of supplying the new kitchen of the firehouse.

Whether you could be an active member or an inactive member, you are urged to join the auxiliary. The membership fee is small and your support will be greatly appreciated.

Meetings are held the second Monday of each month at 7 o'clock at the firehouse. Current officers are Shirley Seames president; Sally Smith, vice-president; Mary Stone, secretary, and Diane Howe, treasurer.

The Selectmen met Wednesday to discuss minimum standards for roads before they could be accepted as town ways. The following standards are an outline of standards approved by the Selectmen, subject to approval by the Planning Board. Final acceptance of any road as a Town Way would only be by vote of the town, after minimum standards are met. A more complete list of specifications is on file in the Town office. First, any new road must connect to an existing Town road or State Highway, to be accepted. A right-of-way a minimum of 50 feet wide must be dedicated to the Town. A drawing of the proposed road, showing that the owner plans to meet all requirements, and what he plans to do if any special conditions exist, must be submitted to the Board of Selectmen before construction is begun. A plan, suitable for recording, showing boundaries and their markers, drainage, traveled ways, etc., shall accompany the owner's Petition for a Town Way. If a road is to be a dead end, an area with a minimum of a fifty foot radius centered a minimum of forty three feet beyond the end of the fifty foot wide right-of-way, is to be dedicated to the Town as a turn around. The road must have a minimum width of twenty foot traveled way, plus two foot wide shoulders on each side for a total of twenty-four foot width. A minimum drop of two and one half feet from shoulder to ditch bottom, with a slope not steeper than three to one, ditch back slopes not steeper than two to one. The traveled way and shoulders, and in turn around an area with a radius of twenty two feet center, must have a minimum of twenty four inches gravel base and reinforced concrete or corrugated metal culverts of a size and length to meet drainage requirements must be installed where needed. Vertical clearance above the final surface must be a minimum of fifteen feet, and no grade along the center of the traveled way shall be greater than fifteen percent. The twenty foot traveled way and turn around shall be given, after the road has been built one winter season, but before two winter seasons, a bituminous surface treatment in accordance with the specifications of the Maine Department of Transportation. This shall be a double seal coat treatment with an approved type and grade of bituminous material. The first application shall be at the rate of not less than six tenths gallon per square yard and the second at not less than three tenths per square yard. A sand cover shall be applied after each application.

There will be a meeting of the Oxford County Municipal Officers

ADULT EDUCATION CLASS

Since early February, S. A. D.

44 residents have had the opportunity to take advantage of a varied adult education program and they have done so in growing numbers. An initial enrollment figure of 182 has now risen to over 300 as persons become increasingly aware of the need to keep pace with a changing world, and the fact that education is more than a process which begins at the age of 6 and ends 12 years later.

District schools are now being more fully utilized, thus yielding a better return on school dollar investment, and Director of Adult Education, Marie Wilson is constantly receiving requests for more courses in the fall.

Telstar Regional High School became an official G. E. D. testing center in January, which means that local persons may now take the High School Equivalency Test there rather than traveling out of town. The test is available on an on-going basis.

English, Math, Science and History classes are filled almost exclusively by adults working toward a high school diploma. Since 42% of Maine adults do not hold high school diplomas, this particular aspect of the program will probably be expanded in the future.

General interest courses include typing, sewing, metric system, natural foods, bee keeping, ceramics, physical education (both in Andover and Bethel) and a small engine class.

In cooperation with C.M.V.T.I. a boiler operations course is in progress to prepare students for the licensing exam which will be a state requirement come September.

N.O.V.A. has also cooperated with S.A.D. 44 by offering machine tool operations, industrial wiring and a nurse refresher course.

Ms. Wilson is currently negotiating with the University of Maine (Farmington) to try and have C.E.D. courses in Bethel in 1976-77. There is no doubt that

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Please permit me to make a few brief comments on the "Greenwood City" column in your May 6, 1976 issue. To begin with her opening paragraph is as superb an example of descriptive writing as one is apt to find even in works of recognized literary value. If I were teaching English composition in the schools of S. A. D. 244 or elsewhere, I would certainly use this paragraph as a model of descriptive excellence. It displays all the earmarks of a trained craftsman. It can be summed up in only one word, "beautiful".

Further on in her column, she expresses concern and distress at the "destruction to all the buildings. Looking about us, we again asked, 'Why?' No dweller on our earth possesses such power to destroy as man." Prior to reading Mrs. Morgan's column, it had never occurred to me that the senseless urge to destroy had penetrated our rural areas. In New York City, for example, once viable neighborhoods have been left utterly denuded by arsonists and amateur wreckers. Like Mrs. Morgan we can only ask "Why?"

However this unworthy wrecking have respectable allies. I spent a significant portion of the past winter at The Breakers Hotel in Palm Beach, Fla., and concluded my stay with my brother in Fort Lauderdale. At my request he drove me to Miami where my late wife and I had honeymooned.
The changes that had occurred in the intervening years left me speechless. The entire ocean view had been obliterated by ugly high rise condominiums. Where stately palm trees once swayed, there now

JESSICA DOLVEN as Shirley

Temple will appear in A Bicentennial Salute to "Show Biz", a presentation of the Children's Dance Theater. Showings will be at the Oxford Hills High School this afternoon and tomorrow evening and the Bethel area students will perform at the Telstar Auditorium on May 27 and 28.

IN FLANDERS' FIELDS

In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days we lived.

Felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved and now we lie,
In Flanders' fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep though poppies grow
In Flanders' fields.

MAISAD TEAM TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS HELD AT HYDE SCHOOL, BATH, MAY 12

The 1976 Maine Association of Independent Schools Athletic Directors (MAISAD) team tennis championships were held at the Indoor courts of the Hyde School in Bath, Wednesday, May 12.

The Kents Hill School of Kenneth Hill, won team honors in the six-team tournament, with Gould Academy of Bethel taking second, Hebron Academy a point away in third, with Hyde, North Yarmouth Academy and Bridgton Academy also participating.

Taking individual honors was Charlie Craig of Kents Hill, who was the singles champion, defeating Tom Hays of Hebron Academy 6-2, 2-6, 6-3. Doubles champions for the third consecutive year was the Gould team of Skip Chandler and Dave Johnson who defeated the Hebron Academy team of Pete Kintner and Nick Rubin in straight sets 6-3, 6-4.

The host school this year was Hebron Academy whose coach, Mike Tatistcheff, as tournament director for 1976, made the decision to play indoors because of the weather. All coaches expressed thanks to the Hyde School for making its facility available.

stood fast food restaurants, pizza joints, and a motley assortment of retail establishments. The charm and beauty had disappeared forever.
The countryside between Miami and Fort Lauderdale is strewn with unfinished condominiums whose builders could not obtain bank financing due to the recession. It all looks like London after the blitz. I submit that that type of destruction is far more damaging than that wrought by some misguided vandals. Mrs. Morgan is quite right in reminding us that no dweller on earth possesses the destructive power of Homo-sapiens.

Sincerely yours,
Mark E. Cymrot

May 14, 1976

To the Editor:
This letter is written in response to reading the front of last week's Bethel Citizen (May 13).
First, the Town Manager's column concerning the "30 residents of Main Street" and their "concerns about the actions of young adults on Main Street." Isn't it a bit ironic the next paragraph concerns approval for the many liquor licenses?

I realize this brings "money" into the town—but why can't some suitable location be provided for these young adults and older adults too to have a place to gather? Why not a bowling alley
—a pool table—a place to fix up and test out their cars?

How about some constructive ideas (and rules) from selectmen, Police Officers and concerned citizens?

Also one more comment about the reclassification of Lover's Lane and Cross Street. How will this affect the much needed repairs for the East Bethel and Bleddy Street Roads?

TELSTAR ASSOCIATION OF GIRL SCOUT LEADERS' AWARD DINNER

An awards dinner was held at the Rumford Point Church on Monday evening, May 10, 1976, for the Leaders and Associates of the Telstar Association of Kennebec Council of Girl Scouts, Inc. Marjorie Kraske, of Dixfield, Association Chairman, presided at the meeting, which was also attended by Theresa Massey, Kennebec Council Field Director, Sue Field, Sharon Hutchings, and Louise Miller, of Andover; Connie Libby, Roberta Ramey, Connie Beedy, Patty Stanley, Claudette Charly, and Jewell Stewart of Dixfield; Lillian Turner, Ann Morton, Marcia Stearns, Joan Everett, and Joan Howe of Hanover; Bun-ny Easter, Jerry Bither, and Pauline Smith of Mexico; Sue Rand, Anna Shaw, Sonya Robinson, and Connie Murphy of Rumford; and Jeannette Glaude, Belle Child, Shirley Turner, and Gerry Donahue of West Peru.

Mrs. Kraske gave each leader and co-leader attending a note of appreciation and thank you from Kennebec Council for their service, and special certificates were received by the following:

Mrs. Richard Beedy, Dixfield, 7 years of service; Mrs. Blake MacKay, Bethel, 8; Mrs. Linwood Kennedy, Mexico, 16; Mrs. Ronald Easter, Mexico, 9; Mrs. Gordon Howe, Hanover, 13; Mrs. W. A. Hebert, Dixfield, 7; Mrs. Rose Cathcart, Bethel, 16; Mrs. Sheila Otero-Otero, Bryant Pond, 6; Mrs. Constance Libby, Dixfield, 5; Mrs. Rita Girardin, Dixfield, 5; Mrs. Connie Tuttle, Mexico, 8; Mrs. Charles Everett, Hanover, 5; Mrs. Donald Rand, Rumford, 7; Mrs. Adelard Glaude, West Peru, 19; Mrs. Willard Donahue, West Peru, 20; Mrs. Glaude and Mrs. Donahue were also presented with beautiful plants in recognition of their extra years of service.

Mrs. Massey personally thanked Mrs. Kraske for her eight years of dedicated service to Girl Scouting.

Piper Troop Awards were received by the following Troops: 329 of Dixfield (for two years); 674 of Andover; 612 and 462 of Rumford; and 783, 800, and 333 of Hanover.

Telstar Day Camp Leader, Anna Shaw, reported that they still have room for more campers. They also need a Cadette Leader and one more assistant for the Brownie Leader for the Day Camp which is to be held from June 28 through July 2. Applications will be accepted by Kennebec Council until the quota is reached. The charge is $13 per camper.

Joan Howe reported on the Pat Burger Campership Fund to which each troop wishing to had turned in $1 and a name of one of their members who they would like to have receive the free campership. All names were placed together and one drawn, awarding the campership for this year to Kim Knox of Troop 666 of Peru, with alternate to be Sara Tribou of Dixfield Troop 327.

Louise Miller of Andover's Junior Troop showed a troop program scroll which really beautifully depicted the accomplishments of the troop during the year. Each troop is to turn in to Mrs. Kraske some sort of program report for the year's activities. No set program is necessary as long as it works for that particular troop. Suggestions were made that it might be possible in some instances to have individuals take a troop or part of a troop for several meetings to complete special badge work.

June 5 is the date for the Bicentennial week end for the troops that are already bicentennial troops to display their accomplishments from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. at the Topsham Fair Grounds. These displays will be of interest for the troops that are still working toward becoming bicentennial troops.

This coming Saturday there will be a Village Green Bicentennial at Norway-South Paris which will be of special interest also.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE PUBLICISTS HOLD CONFERENCE AT AUGUSTA

Mrs. Irma H. Thompson of Bethel attended a conference for Christian Science Assistant Committees on Publication held on Saturday, May 15, at the Holiday Inn in Augusta. The purpose of the meeting was to explore ways through which misconceptions about Christian Science can be corrected. Mrs. Thompson was joined by other Assistant Committees from all parts of the State. Chairing the meeting was the State Committee on Publication, James H. Lawrence.

Among the subjects discussed were protecting the practice of religion from any erosion of its traditional freedoms, how to adequately meet health care needs through this alternate method of healing, and the application of religion to the solution of individual problems. The use of news articles as a valuable tool for developing community understanding was also discussed.

The need for Assistant Committees to provide public officials with correct information about Christian Science is essential. And Mr. Lawrence discussed changes in State laws that have resulted from the Regular and Special Sessions of the 107th Maine Legislature.

Interesting reports were heard about talks on Christian Science that were given to high school and college classes, fellowship groups, adult and youth Sunday School classes, service clubs and other organizations.

As Assistant Committee on Publication for the Bethel area, Mrs. Thompson is available to answer any questions about this religion and its method of Christian healing and to handle requests for talks on Christian Science.

Greenwood City —

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

Only now, in May, with the days of spring and with the newly unfolded leaves do we encounter such a scene as outspreads before us. Each season brings its special beauty—autumn foliage, when gentle rains make treetops glitter with droplets of water, winter time when snow fields are tinted by sunrise and sunset, but spring, with the woods spreading away in delicate filmy clouds of tender greens is like no other season.

This week I took my first boat ride. The morning was uncommonly fine. Up the sides of the birch trees by the shore trembled a gentle shimmer of light, reflected from the rippling waters. When I set out, there seemed to be no air stirring. The ripples came, as if some unseen hand directed them, to lap the shore and to dissolve without a murmur.

Sea Nymph was as spry as ever, after a winter of rest and I enjoyed handling the oars much more than last summer.

As I was about to pull out from shore, I sighted the blue heron in the water of the cove across the pond. His head went beneath the water and came up with a pickering about eight inches long. He held it securely by the head as it tried to flap its release. No luck. Heron tipped its head upward, swallowed a couple of times and pickering disappeared. Then the heron took three drinks of the water in which he stood—to wash it down? Perhaps.

Up pond I went first, passed Button Bush Island, not yet blossomed.

The grasses glistened in the morning light. The slant of the sun picked a few ripening spears. The swallows soared close above the green. They flitted over the water in graceful dipping flights, skimming along smoothly and drinking daintily from the mirror-like surface of the water without alighting. Then they'd melt away.

brightness. You can not focus on one wave, one tree, or one glistening blade of grass because of the one next to it. You just have to settle for what you can "eat" of green.

I rowed as far as the place we call The Rocks then across to Catfall Land.

The scene was rich with the meaning of life. It was fun to edge along the shore with the stage set with suspense for a happening at any moment. It was a place to look across the woods and fields, a place to notice where the bushes have come in along the fences. I could see old apple trees, scattered where once they stood in orderly rows, some now with skeleton arms against the blue sky or already blown off and rotting on the ground.

Over all it was as if a conclusion had been reached and motion gone out of the world. I sat and waited. Nothing happened until my eyes caught motion; a large bird coming in at an angle to the shore, just clearing the water; the blue heron again! This added to the stillness of the far-reaching scene, making it more suggestive, more eloquent than ever.

A small breeze stirred the water now. A kingfisher gave his harsh rattle. Time to turn toward home.

Along the shore the flowers were popping out into the warmth, competing with the wild violets and Johnny-jump-ups.

It had been one of those special mornings in May, when there was a drowsy almost June feel in the softly stirring air.

Nothing like a boat to teach one the worth of quiet contemplation. There is much in the kiss of the sun, on dancing little waves, a fresh breeze in your face when fields are brushed with tender green.

Club Eight met Tuesday afternoon with Helen Chojnacki at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Inman, of West Paris, were at their camp here on Saturday and Sunday cleaning and preparing them for the summer.

On Saturday, Fay and Ann Holt and I went to Lewiston, shopping. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morgan visited Ernest and Ina Mundt in Bethel one afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt were in Windsor to see son, Robert, and family on Sunday.

Some of the John Betts family were here at their home over the week end returning to Portsmouth on Sunday afternoon.

Callers to visit with Frank and Dorothy Curtis this week were: Phil Bentley, Auburn; Carroll Nottage and wife, Bertha, Laurene French, South Paris; Mildred Bowman, Hebron; Evelyn Heikkinen and sons, Raymond and Fred, Portland; Fred Curtis and sons, Carl, Kenneth, Albert and Ray; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morgan, local.

Ann Holt, Bethel, took her parents out for dinner one evening this week.

The Senior Citizens from Prides Corner, Westbrook bowling alley, met the Oxford Hills Senior Citizens at their alley on Wednesday. Doris Hayes won the high single for the day and was presented a trophy.

AUTO LOANS ~~11%~~ 9³/₄% or LESS!

We have dropped our new car loan rate, for a limited time, from 11% to an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of 9³/₄%.

Yes, that's good news. But here's some more news from Casco that could mean that you can pay even less than 9³/₄%.

We have just established a new, permanent installment loan pricing policy called RATE BREAK. With RATE BREAK you can get a better break on the rate you pay when you borrow, if you have your savings in Savings Manager or a NOW account at Casco.

RATE BREAK reduces the cost of auto loans, home improvement loans, vacation loans, and almost all other kinds of installment borrowing.

So whether or not you have ever banked at Casco before, do yourself a favor. Come in and let us show you, without any obligation, how RATE BREAK can give you a better break on the rate you pay when you borrow, if you have your savings at Casco, too.

BOOK REVIEW

By David D. Thompson member of Gould Academy faculty, 1942-67.

The Gould Academy Story, 1836-1976; Francis Parkman; Published and copyrighted, 1976, by Gould Academy.

Here within the compass of 226 richly and meticulously researched pages, the end product of many weeks of interviews and examination of scores of old and new records by its experienced historian-editor, Francis Parkman, is what must certainly be the definitive story of Gould Academy. Every living graduate of Gould as well as ex-faculty members, current undergraduates and faculty, will find a rewarding treasure-trove of deftly drawn character sketches of those who, often against seemingly insurmountable odds, persevered in seeing the school safely through personnel and financial storms which threatened more than once to force it to close its doors.

When, as in the history of Gould, a school presents many problems associated with two types of school: a public high school and a private boarding school, then it's a doubled task of interviewing and researching which faced Mr. Parkman. He discovered, for example, that for a period of 36 years in Gould's early existence 24—count 'em, 24—principals came and went in what might facetiously be named the "revolving door syndrome." It was only with the advent of Frank Hanscom with his long record of devoted service from 1887 to 1939 that any real sense of stability and continuity arrived. The often unending stresses and strains arising between the town students and dormitory students receive due attention by Mr. Parkman, climaxing, first, with the account of how close the absorption of Gould as a part of the University of Maine appeared to be certain, and, second, of its becoming 100% a boarding school when a finely equipped public high school for Bethel and several surrounding towns opened its doors in 1968. The "Welcome Mat" was still out for town lads and lassies who wished to remain at Gould, and several each year have taken advantage of this opportunity.

Faced with the task of giving credit where credit is due, Mr. Parkman has slighted no one who contributed in any degree, small or large, to Gould's progress and survival from its earliest days right down to the present era. In commenting on these pioneers, Dr. Sidney W. Davidson, himself a 'Giant' in steering Gould through many trials, said, "Yes, indeed, there were giants in those days."

Without wishing to slight the scores of names given due praise by Mr. Parkman, it seems fitting to mention that standing out like peaks in the Himalayas, the names of Nathaniel True, Dr. John and Marion True Gehring, William Dingham 2nd, Dr. Sidney Davidson, Frank E. Hanscom, Ellery C. Park, Dr. Payson Smith, Elwood Ireland, and Edmond Vachon deserve more than passing attention.

Although Mr. Parkman has been most zealous in his digging into the financial trials and tribulations with which from its very first years the schools had to contend he has not permitted himself to be "snowed under" by what amounts to almost a surplus of figures. What this reviewer considers the book's strongest point is its warmly drawn, sympathetic description of the day-to-day dedicated work of Principal Frank E. Hanscom, whose principalship spanned the years from 1897 to 1936, and whose portrait faces the title page of this volume. Like Atlas of old, this man bore Gould on his shoulders for 52 weeks of every year; enrollment, heavy teaching load, administration, public service, student discipline, devoted father to a growing family, all of these he handled with grace, dignity, and marked success.

Mr. Parkman has written on all of the preceding names with the same emphasis on their traits as congenial, self-sacrificing Gould backers. However, even as we may believe that without the guiding hand of Frank Hanscom Gould might well have closed its doors in the early 20th century, so, in this review, it's only just and fair that the same tribute may be paid to Sidney Davidson, whose wisdom and financial acumen were instrumental in applying the dollar transfusion to the sometimes faltering financial bloodstream of the school. Might we say, in boxing term, that this book shows in complete detail the "one-two punch" which the team of Hanscom and Davidson, with William Dingham 2nd in their corner, gave to knock out Heavyweights Failure and Gloom and insure the future of Gould Academy.

The names of many Bethel athletes occur under pictures of athletic teams of years past, as well as in the complete honor rolls of World Wars I and II. A complete list of Presidents of the Board of Trustees, as well as names of Board members themselves, from 1836 to 1975, are included in an appendix. A very complete index was compiled by Stanley Howe, '62, curator of the Bethel Historical Society.

End papers, showing airplane views of the Gould campus in spring and winter, were developed from professional photographic prints taken by Lee Coulombe, '54, and add much to the graphics of this history.

Mr. Parkman acknowledges with gratitude the debt he owes to Miss Eva Bean, whose "History of Gould Academy 1836-1961" furnished a priceless source for a large percentage of this volume. In Appendix A he goes into some detail in describing what founts of inspiration he found in the much beloved Miss Bean's work.

As one closes the last pages of this book, he finds that, consciously or not, Mr. Parkman's narrative, so full of "the milk of human kindness" in its descriptions of people, so all-inclusive in its historical and financial data, has given us a wide and often colorful

SENIOR CITIZENS MEET AT SUNDAY RIVER INN

The Senior Citizens met at the Sunday River Inn for their meeting on Wednesday, May 12. It was also their 14th anniversary.

It was opened at 11 o'clock with President Muriel Faudi presiding. We all repeated the Lord's Prayer in unison for our opening ceremony. All officers were present.

Sunshine Chairman, Cora Bennett gave her report. Get well cards to Philip Faudi, Bill Young, Leona Curtis, Elizabeth Glines and Joe Perry. Nell Valentine was welcomed back after a long period of illness.

An invitation was given for the panorama of educational changes in America since 1848. We read of the strict attention given to the three R's, the emphasis on ethics and the creation of a moral atmosphere; we smile at the styles of bygone times in many of the pictures—and we become aware of the prevailing air of permissiveness which prevails today as we celebrate our Bicentennial. No, indeed, far be it from our desire to turn back the clock!

Evolution? Continuity? Progress? Aroused nostalgia among the Old Grads? They're all inherent in this book. A glance into the current philosophies and program of the Gould of 1976 would discover new emphasis on foreign student exchanges, on departure from the strict ritualism of a hide-bound curriculum on applying that oft-quoted term "visible" to factors outside the four walls of the classroom, under the present Headmaster Richard J. Dolven.

And so let us place this nostalgic "The Gould Academy Story" in a Time Capsule, to be dug up in the year 2076 A. D., when perhaps another historian will write as interesting and as complete a volume as this one... which, by the way, can be purchased at the main office in Hanscom Hall.

Senior Citizens from Sue Farrar to attend the recital at Telstar May 27 at 4 o'clock. Emily Saunders was introduced, and she spoke on the forming of the first Senior Citizens Club, and those who were there. Nine members of the original charter present were: Nell and Carroll Valentine, Gladys Cross, Maud Hunt, Maggie Lowell, Sylvia Conroy, Stella Moore and Sarah Stevens, and Emily. Our membership now is up to 78. Pearl Tibbets was unable to be present but is a charter member.

There were 61 seated at the table. A delicious smorgasbord style meal was served by the Inn's staff.

Ice cream with strawberries, plus the birthday cake furnished by Leona Flint was dessert, cut and served by Sarah Stevens.

Those observing birthdays in May were: Mildred Lowell, Mary Bishop and Helen Varner. Others at the head table were Nell and Carroll Valentine, Muriel Faudi, Stanley Lord and Rev. McKinstry.

Miss Helen Varner shared her trip to Jamaica with us. The beautiful country and their customs and way of life. Tourism is one way of enjoying people from other lands. She wore a dress made from her trip. We enjoyed her talk very much.

The Lions Club will furnish the June 9 dinner at the Congregational Church dining hall.

A trip to Boothbay and the coast is on the agenda. Final plans will be made at the June meeting.

Friday, May 21, the Task Force will hold a meeting at 10 a. m. and again at 1:30 p. m. at Murray Hall, Livermore Falls. Kathy Goodwin, chairman of Maine's Committee on Aging with Roland Probie, representing the Bureau of Maine's Elderly will be the speakers. Members from the tri-counties are urged to attend this important meeting — much depends on the future of Independent Projects.

Rev. Ronald McKinstry gave the closing prayer.

MOTORISTS URGED TO CHECK THEIR REGISTRATIONS

Secretary of State Mark Gheeky urges Maine motorists to check their registration certificates to learn the expiration date of their current registration.

Gartley explained that under the new stagger registration system approximately 40,000 passenger car registrations expire at mid-night of the last day of each month. This system is serving its intended purpose of distributing the re-registration work load throughout the year and has eliminated the endless waiting lines that appeared each February in front of the Motor Vehicle Registration Offices. However, one feature or by-product of the stagger program is that now motorists must be aware of their expiration month and re-register their car before the deadline. Failure to re-register on time places a motorist in the unpleasant position of possibly being cited for driving an unregistered motor vehicle.

The best way to determine the expiration month of your registration is to check either the registration certificate or the validation stickers on the number plate. Both the certificate and the stickers indicate the month of expiration. For example, if the validation sticker on your plates reads "May 76" it means that the registration on that car expires at midnight on May 31, 1976.

If per chance your validation sticker or registration certificate shows an expiration date that has passed, that registration has expired and you are driving illegally.

It was the original intention of the Motor Vehicle Division to send post card reminders to each person having a vehicle registered under the stagger schedule. These post cards would be mailed approximately one month prior to the expiration date of a person's registration. These post cards were

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE REPUDIATES AMNESTY PLANK

The Oxford County Democratic Committee, at its biennial meeting held Thursday, May 13 in Rumford, voted overwhelmingly to repudiate the amnesty plank which was introduced from the floor and accepted by the recent Democratic State convention. The resolution passed by the County Committee read as follows: Whereas the Maine Democratic Party in convention amended its 1976 platform to include a plank urging complete and total amnesty for all Vietnam War resisters, and whereas the above plank urges such amnesty on a blanket basis, we, the Oxford County Democratic Committee do formally repudiate this plank as an unjust proposition. We urge support of the original platform committee's plank on the amnesty matter and further urge that the core of any amnesty program be an individualized case by case judgement.

Other business conducted at the Democratic meeting included the election of officers for 1976-78. Paul McGuire of Bethel was re-elected chairman, Ann Robinson of Paris defeated David McKenney of Brownfield for vice-chairman, Cathy Newell of Bethel and Lawrence Dammun of Stoneham were re-elected as secretary and treasurer respectively. Ann Robinson announced that she will be a candidate for Register of Probate.

Special tribute was paid to Joseph Constanza of Rumford for his devoted service to the Democratic party on the local, county and state levels and he was presented with a gift and a framed certificate of appreciation.

The June meeting of the County Committee will be held in Fryeburg. At this time designation of Legislative District Coordinators and Subcommittee members will be completed.

sent out during the months of October, November, December 1975, and January 1976 and served good purpose. However, the postal costs which increased in January made the overall cost to the State prohibitive and the post cards were reluctantly discontinued. Now, it is the responsibility of the motorist to remember when their registration expires. This is similar to the requirement of remembering when your vehicle inspection is due, except that your registration expires annually rather than every six months, as is the case with inspection stickers. Motorists are urged to establish their own "reminder system" so that they "would not allow their registration to expire."

Miss Marlene Sweetser received her degree in elementary education from U. M. F. on Saturday.

SURVEY INDICATES MAINE'S POPULATION IS INCREASING AT RATE OF 1.2% PER YEAR

Maine's population is gaining at a rate approximately 50% greater than the total United States, according to a University of Maine at Orono professor who is conducting a survey for the Commission on Maine's Future. Dr. Louis Ploch, rural sociologist, says the U. S. rate is about 0.8% a year while the Maine rate is approximately 1.2%. A major share of the Maine population gain is related to an increase in the number of in-migrants. The survey is being conducted by contacting those who moved to the state and received drivers' licenses during the latter part of 1975.
